OFFERS REWARD SOUTHERN WILL FOR FLOGGERS MEET IT'S MEN AT MANLY MONDAY.

By the Associated Press.
Washington, N. C., Aug. 5.—Gov. Cameron today offered a reward of $100 for each member of the mob of 25 men who late yesterday kidnapped and flogged five Seaboard Air Line workmen at Manly, near Southern Pines, and prevented them from reaching a locomotive.
None of the men was seriously injured and after receiving medical attention all returned to Raleigh last night.
Sheriff Blue stated this morning that the men were whipped with a large "black jack oak" and all of their backs were terribly bruised. It was at first reported that one of the men was so badly hurt that he might die.

PASSED GOOD NIGHT
By the Associated Press.
Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 5.—A. C. Ketchen who was shot through the chest and dangerously wounded early yesterday by three negroes who robbed him and attacked his wife, passed a fairly comfortable night, it was stated at the McConell hospital today.
Mrs. Ketchen and their infant child were on their way by automobile from Miami, Fla., to their old home in Connecticut when the three negroes attacked them. Relatives from Hartford, Conn., are expected in a few days.

HICKORY MAN THERE
Mr. E. L. Flowers, who returned last night from the small hill country, was near Carthage when three negroes, now in the penitentiary at Raleigh, attacked Mrs. A. E. Ketchen of Miami, Fla., shot her husband through the chest and robbed their tent Thursday night. Mrs. Ketchen was outraged by the act of the negroes, the other robbing the camp of the wounded husband.
News of the outrage did not become known until yesterday morning. All telephone lines being closed at night, and immediately after the news spread a mob of 250 men in automobiles followed Sheriff Blue to Raleigh. He drove a fast car and beat the crowd in the state prison by 45 minutes, Mr. Flowers said.
Excitement in the community was intense and men who went to the scene for the purpose of reasoning with the crowd were filled with the same feeling that actuated the mob, the Hickory man said. If the sheriff had not set a good start, the mob would have lynched his prisoners.
Mrs. Ketchen, who lost consciousness for more than an hour, dragged herself back to the camp where her husband lay bleeding from a wound in the breast, and carried her 15-month-old child 400 yards to a farm house, where the alarm was given. Mr. Flowers talked with Mrs. Ketchen yesterday.

Ashburn, local life insurance agent, in his office here on the night of December 7 last, was this morning sentenced by Judge Brock presiding over Forsyth superior court to 30 years at hard labor in the state penitentiary. That was the maximum sentence. No notice of appeal was given by Pekar's attorneys, who decided not to contest the sentence.

REED'S NOMINATION NOW ASSURED FACT
By the Associated Press.
St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Politicians today agreed that United States Senator James A. Reed had won the senatorial nomination over Breckenridge Long, former assistant secretary of state, the plurality in Tuesday's election being the only matter of doubt. Sixty-eight precincts still were missing late last night with Senator Reed in the lead by 5,957 votes. While Mr. Reed would not directly claim a victory before leaving for Washington last night, he indicated his confidence that he had won.

GERMAN PROPERTY SEIZED BY FRANCE
By the Associated Press.
Paris, Aug. 5.—The French government today ordered into effect the penalties against Germans for failure to pay 100 million of the French war debts. The property was seized in France. Certain payments which were being made to Germans were suspended in Alsace and Lorraine, as were also the indemnities under the arbitration agreement between France and Germany in August, 1921. No military interest is involved.

GOOD SUGGESTIONS IN LATE GARDEN
For the fall and winter garden, a very thorough preparation of the land to be used is one of the positive requirements, if success is to be had. This is because of weather conditions, which at this season of the year are very hot and usually without the showers that assist so greatly with the spring garden. Then too, the soil is usually dryer and harder than in the spring.

CULTIVATION
If success is to be attained in growing the fall and winter vegetables, frequent, thorough, shallow cultivation is another primary essential, which is indispensable. Cultivation should begin when the land is broken, and repeated every week from this time on to maturity of the crop. Preferably his should be performed as soon after rain as the soil will permit. This is where the wheel hoe, or the garden slow, comes to the rescue, since with his implement four or five hours cultivation for the ordinary hoe method can be done in one hour by the use of the wheel hoe, with its different attachments.

SEEDS AND PLANTS
Good seeds with high vitality, or good plants should be used for best vegetable growth. Only the highest grade seeds or plants ought to be used. These from the better seed houses or some produced since many gardens fail because of poor seed or plants.

SUITABLE PLANTINGS FOR AUGUST
Snap beans, sweet corn, kale, endive, all turnips, rutabaga, fall radish, lettuce, beet, Swiss chard, carrots, mustard, spinach (Norfolk), Irish Potatoes, Pei-Tsai (Chinese) cabbage.
Transplant celery, cabbage, collards, snap beans, brussels sprouts.

"There are no matters in controversy between this road and its employees which cannot be settled in harmony on the basis set out by President Harding," the letter said. Mr. Pelter said the road had refrained from employing new men because it wanted to retain its old employees.
"Your places are still open with your seniority rights unaffected," he continued. "I extend to you the privilege of returning to our service under the above conditions," the letter continued, "before duty to the public, whom we both serve, forces us to employ new men, disturbing the seniority status now existing on this railroad."
